

Pinner
Synagogue
Adult Education

SPRING 2010 PROGRAMME

Wednesday 27th January

Neville Nagler

"A Poetic Approach to the Board of Deputies"

The former Chief Executive of the Board of Deputies will give us a personal insight and hitherto undisclosed revelations into key events affecting the Jewish community during the nineties and noughties.

Wednesday 10th February

Jonathan Lewis and Warren Silverman

"The Lost World of the Litvaks - Historical Jewish Journey through the Baltic States"

Last year Jonathan and Warren took a Jewish tour of the Baltic States. Through their experiences they will be telling the story of those famed and destroyed Jewish communities and their green shoots of regeneration.

Wednesday 10th March

Jackie Marks

"Rembrandt's Jewish Themes"

Rembrandt lived among the Jewish community of seventeenth century Amsterdam and painted widely on Jewish themes. Rabbi Menasseh Ben Israel, who petitioned Cromwell for the readmission of Jews to England, was his friend and adviser on Judaism. Using slide projections, art historian Jackie Marks discusses some of Rembrandt's works on Jewish topics.

Pinner Synagogue

8.30pm

Charge £3 per person

Light refreshments